THE WORD THIS WEEK

In the first reading from the Prophet Jeremiah, God condemns leaders who mislead His flock and promises to personally restore and protect them with just & wise leaders, ensuring their safety and growth. The Psalm assures us that we're guided by the Lord and need nothing more. He comforts and protects us always, and we will dwell with Him forever. St Paul reminds us in Ephesians that Christ has made us one by His sacrifice, breaking down barriers and granting us all access to the Father, ensuring peace among us. Finally, in the Gospel Jesus and the apostles retreat for rest, but a large crowd follows. Seeing their need, Jesus compassionately teaches them, recognizing their need, like sheep without a shepherd.

GENERAL NOTICES

Recently dead: John Knight RIP

Remembrance and Thanksgiving: Canon Stewart will be leading the annual short service of prayer in Warwick cemetery on Sun 21 July at 4pm, remembering our family members and friends who have died. If you enter the cemetery by the main gate on Birmingham Road, the service will take place on the grassy area beyond the chapels.

Borrowmeo Books: Please bring any saleable books you're prepared to get rid of and put them on the for-sale shelf at the back of St Charles. Hardbacks £1, paperbacks 50p (in honesty box) - proceeds to the church

Deanery: The overall summary of the Banbury and Warwick Deanery Visitation report along with the individual parish reports can now be seen on both the diocesan and deanery websites.

Or there are cheap National Express coaches available from Warwick Parkway, or trains from Warwick/Leamington to London. If you have any questions, please speak to Chrissie Beaumont

Trinity Catholic School Congratulations to Trinity for receiving the Quality Mark for Holocaust Beacon Schools - only the 25th school in the country to receive this prestigious award! To read more about this: <https://holocausteducation.org.uk/2024/06/19/31513/>

Magnificat is a monthly publication containing the Mass readings for each day, a shortened form of Morning & Evening Prayer, information on various saints and meditations. It also has the Order of Mass. These can be ordered via catholicerald.co.uk/magnificat/ for £49 annually, delivered directly to you. If sufficient people wish to commit to purchasing them at £5 every month, we could place an annual order from the parish.

'Loneliness' at heart of Pope's theme for 4th Grandparents Day.

Next Sunday, Catholics around the world will be invited to reflect on the great heritage and wisdom passed on by their grandparents and the elderly. The Pope has chosen the theme: "Do not cast me off in my old age" (Psalm 71:9). It's meant "to call attention to the fact that, sadly, loneliness is the bitter lot in life of many elderly persons, so often the victims of the throw-away culture." In his message, Pope Francis will draw on the verse from Psalm 71 that depicts the plea of an elderly person who reflects on the story of their friendship with God.
